EVENTI INFORMATIVI/FORMATIVI

11 Aprile 2024 EU-Webinar, IP & Open Science EIC and SMEs Executive Agency.

The aim of this webinar is to create awareness of, and to build confidence in, applying the laws of IP to the culture of Open Science, and vice versa. The webinar will show that there is no conflict between IP and Open Science, but on the other hand, "open" does not mean "no IP issues", nor "free for commercial use". We will explore the concept of "openness" in its various forms and show how the IP system fits with the essence of OS. We will show examples of how the sharing of IP, data, and publications, can be as open as possible, but closed when necessary.

11 Aprile 2024 EU Event Città del future, workshop "Innovating Smart Cities Resilience Through Research and Best Practices.

The CERIS workshop - 'Innovating Smart Cities Resilience through Research and Best Practices' addresses the pressing need to strengthen the resilience of urban centres against complex challenges in an increasingly interconnected and technology-driven world. Today, cities face complex threats ranging from cyber-attacks to environmental degradation stemming from climate change. This event will look at how research contributes to bolstering security, technology, and urban planning in improving the resilience of Smart Cities. It will discuss how to integrate security by design principles into spatial development, while fostering collaborative efforts across sectors, for instance by empowering communities as active stakeholders in resilience-building endeavors. Furthermore, the event will be an occasion to facilitate networking and the exchange of knowledge between policymakers, practitioners, researchers & academia, industry, and civil society. By highlighting security gaps and needs, EU policy priorities, and future scenarios, the event continues the work of CERIS in fostering a collective vision for European resilience. For more information, please contact HOME-CERIS@ec.europa.eu.

16 Aprile 2024 EU-Webinar IP for Future and Emerging Technologies, EIC and SMEs Executive Agency.

Future and Emerging Technologies, (FETs) are those which are in early-stage commercialisation having recently left the lab. This webinar focusses on future and emerging technologies (FETs) and the insight that analysis of patenting activity can bring to the evolution of these technologies. Examples are chosen from EU initiatives such as Flagship projects amongst others. The webinar will show the application of patent analysis to selected FETs and the relation to scientific publications. The webinar is especially relevant to research labs, spin outs, start-ups and technology-based SMEs.

The European Innovation Council (EIC): calls in 2024

The funding and support are organised into three main funding schemes: the EIC Pathfinder for advanced research to develop the scientific basis to underpin breakthrough technologies (Section II); the EIC Transition to validate technologies and develop business plans for specific applications (Section III) and the EIC Accelerator to support companies (SMEs, start-ups, spin-outs and in exceptional cases small mid-caps) to bring their innovations to market and scale up.

The majority of funding will be awarded through open calls with no predefined thematic priorities ('EIC Open'). The EIC Open funding is designed to enable support for any technologies and innovations that cut across different scientific, technological, sectoral and application fields or represent novel combinations. The challenge driven approach ('EIC Challenges') provides funding to address specific technological and innovation breakthroughs. These challenges take into account EU priorities for transitioning to a green, digital and healthy society, as well as the overall strategic planning for Horizon Europe, and the inputs of stakeholders, experts and the EIC Board.
